

Reva Small

chairman of

radio-TV ³⁻⁹⁻⁸¹ group

Reva G. Small has been elected chairman and president of Mid America Media, company officials announced today.

The company, with headquarters in Kankakee, operates 11 radio stations and two cable television systems in six states.

Mrs. Small succeeds her husband, Burrell, who died Feb. 22. She had been serving as vice chairman and executive vice president of the company.

Their daughter, Susanne Bergeron, and sons, Leslie and Stephen, continue as vice presidents of the media group.
