Jacqueline May Inglesh Weds Richard Bancroft Gibbs Saturday

Miss Jacqueline May Inglesh and Richard Bancroft Gibbs were united in marriage at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the First Methodist Church. The Rev. Morgan Williams officiated for the double ring ceremony.

Prof. Walter Larsen, organist, played appropriate selections prior to the wedding as well as Lohengrin's processional and Mendelssohn's recessional.

The bride is the daughter of Gen. A. E. Inglesh and the late May Small Inglesh of 856 S. Chicago Ave. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. William Jarvis Gibbs and the late William Jarvis Gibbs of River Forest.

Chantilly Lace Gown

Miss Inglesh was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she had selected a gown of white Chantilly lace over blush satin. The scalloped, drop shoulder neckline of illusion was edged at the throat with a lace scroll inset and the full length sleeves tapered to points at the wrists. A plain gathered panel was featured at the front of the three tiered skirt, with sweep, which was worn over a Christian Dior hoop. Her fingertip veil cascaded from a Juliet type cap of lace, edged with seed pearls from her mother's wedding dress. White stephanotis and chrysanthemums composed her bouquet.

Mrs. Jack Siewert served as matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of champagne faille, styled with a scoop neckline and full length sleeves. Matching shoes and a rust velvet leaf headband completed the ensemble. Her flowers were gold and bronze chrysanthemums. Junior attendant was Miss Sue Jeffries. Her gown and flowers were similar to that of the matron of honor.

Donald Kirk Gibbs of Hinsdale, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and ushering were Robert Lefley, Howard Shaw, Richard Ratchiff and Richard Barr, all of River Forest. Robert Lefley and Richard Barr also served as candlelighters.

Reception In Gold Room

A reception followed at 5 p. m. in the Gold Room of the Hotel Kankakee. The five tier wedding cake which centered the bridal table was topped with china bride and bridegroom dolls that were used on the bride's parent's wedding cake in 1915. Mrs. Leslie Small, aunt of the bride, acted as hostess for the affair.

Assisting at the reception were: Miss Sue Small, in charge of the guest book, and pouring were Miss Alice Gibbs, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Burrell Small, Mrs. Len Small, Mrs. Richard Greenlee, Miss Priscilla Blandy and Mrs. Donald Kirk Gibbs. Miss Genevieve Moroff and Mrs. Louie Fourie served the punch.

During the reception a string ensemble from Olivet College provided a musical background.

For the wedding trip to Michigan the new Mrs. Gibbs was attired in a brown suit, an amber velour hat with bronze beading, brown calf accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Kankakee High School and the University of Illinois where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority. She was employed in the Kankakee Clinic business office last year.

Mr. Gibbs is a graduate of Oak Park High School and the University of Illinois where he was a member of Chi Psi Fraternity. He entered the United States Navy last July and has been stationed at the United States Naval Training Center at Great Lakes for the last three months. After the wedding trip he will report back to Great Lakes for further assignment following which Mrs. Gibbs will join him.

Out of town guests were River Forest, Winnetka, Mar St. Joseph, Mich.; Grand Rapids, Mich.; Duluth, Minn., and New
